

5th Stockholm Philosophy Graduate Conference

Welcome to join us on a two-day conference in general philosophy, together with Hilary Greaves, Paul Egré and eight international graduate students

FRIDAY 28 APRIL

- 10.00 OPENING ADDRESS
- 10:10 KEYNOTE: Hilary Greaves (University of Oxford)
T.B.A.
- 11.20 Jeremy Hovda (KU Leuven)
Are Kant's Thoughts on Race Philosophically Relevant?
- 13.50 Matteo Benocci (University of Reading)
The Repeatability Argument and the Bundle Theory of Universals
- 14.55 Marius Baumann (University of Berne)
Is there a Fact of the Matter to the Dirty Hands Debate?
- 16.10 Daniel Munro (University of Toronto)
Bodily Sensations and Immediate Justification
- 18.00 CONFERENCE DINNER

SATURDAY 29 APRIL

- 10.00 Ylwa Sjölin Wirling (University of Gothenburg)
On Defending the Limitations of Modal Empiricism
- 11.05 Jay Jian (University of Oxford)
Instrumental Rationality and the Cognitive Grounding of Desire
- 13.10 Benjamin Wilck (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin)
How Many Noses Did Socrates Have?
- 14.15 Leonie Smith (University of Manchester)
Compensation, Individual Duties,
and Harm-Avoidance in the Case of Global Poverty
- 15:30 KEYNOTE: Paul Egré (École Normale Supérieure)
Typicality and Graded Membership in Dimensional Adjectives

The conference is held in lecture hall 7 in the D-house of the main building of Stockholm University

This is free and open to all. Register by email to gradconf@philosophy.su.se

For further information and updates, visit our website: www.philosophy.su.se/gradconf

